

McCutchan, Eugene Roy Lt. Col. U.S. Air Force, retired. Age 92, died at home in Phoenix on June 24, 2012. Born in Light, Arizona, Gene was a decorated pilot who served in World War II, Korea and Vietnam. He flew B-17s in WWII as a member of the 303rd Bombardment Group "Hells Angels" out of Molesworth, England. In Korea he was an advanced flight instructor for cadet pilots. He served four years in Vietnam as a Forward Air Controller and Liaison Officer. In his civilian life, Gene worked as a consultant and project manager for various companies. Gene was married to Elizabeth Stephenson with whom he had two children, Michael of Tempe, and Carol Ann (deceased). He later married Marija Kusic with whom he had one daughter, Moreen of Flagstaff. He enjoyed his retirement years spending time with family, fellow servicemen and playing cards. Gene also is survived by two grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, one niece and many dear friends. Private services at a family plot were held at Mountain View Cemetery in Prescott.